

PRESS RELEASE

Media Contacts:

J Public Relations

619.255.7069

aac@jpublicrelations.com

AFRICA ADVENTURE CONSULTANTS' KENT REDDING NAMED CONDE NAST TRAVELER 2021 TRAVEL SPECIALIST

The award-winning luxury African safari tour operator earns travel specialists award

Denver, Colo. (March 23, 2021) – Conde Nast Traveler, a luxury and lifestyle magazine published by Conde Nast, today announced its 2021 Travel Specialists awards. Kent Redding, founder and president of Africa Adventure Consultants was named on Conde Nast Traveler's 2021 Travel Specialist. Conde Nast Traveler awarded 435 top travel advisors this year—the most ever included in the list.

"I'm honored to be recognized on the 2021 Conde Nast Traveler Travel Specialists list among other top travel advisors," said Kent Redding. "Over this past year, the pandemic has faced the travel industry with many challenges so it is wonderful to see publications like Conde Nast Traveler celebrating the experts in the space while encouraging travelers to seek out and work with travel specialists to plan bucket list travel."

Africa Adventure Consultants is an award-winning luxury African safari tour operator that arranges highly-curated, personalized trips in the continent's top destinations. For every trip, travelers are paired with their personal Journey Specialists to provide specialized comfort and knowledge from an American-based company with resources for international travel, vaccinations, airport transfers, maintenance of strict COVID-19 protocols and more.

To celebrate 20 years, Africa Adventure Consultants launched its NEW capsule itinerary in 2021 that takes travelers through the company's most incredible experiences, accommodations, people and cultures from the past two decades. This private luxury itinerary hits seven countries in 20 days—South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Tanzania and Rwanda—and includes private charters and helicopters to shuttle travelers from world-class game activities including game drives and night drives, to thrilling adventures like hiking and game walks, and special experiences such as boating and gorilla trekking. Accommodations range from incredibly opulent lodges to exclusive remote luxury tented camps. In short, this 20th anniversary safari will showcase the best of Africa Adventure Consultants. 20th Anniversary Capsule Safari starting from $60,000 per person.

Conde Nast Traveler's list of specialists originated years ago where Conde Nast Traveler editors pick the most respected experts who tap into their insider knowledge to organize the best trips around the world. The full 2021 Travel Specialists list can be found here: <https://www.cntraveler.com/travel-specialists>.

About Africa Adventure Consultants

Africa Adventure Consultants (AAC) is an award-winning luxury African safari tour operator that arranges highly-curated, personalized trips in the continent's top destinations, including Tanzania, Kenya, South Africa, Rwanda, Botswana and others. For every trip, travelers are paired with their personal Journey Specialist to customize a one-of-a-kind itinerary. These bespoke tours help guests safely and reliably experience the best of Africa, from privately guided game drives to see the Big 5 or the Great Migration to guided hikes to enjoy up-close-and personal interactions with endangered mountain gorillas to cultural immersions for an authentic, personalized glimpse into a local's life.